THE CHARLEROI MAIL

VOL. XIX. NO 63. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1918. TWO CENTS

WILL ASK FOR VOLUNTEERS TO HELP WITH WHEAT SEEDING

Charleroi Expected to Help In Movement To Increase Wheat Area

2,000 ACRES COUNTY QUOTA

Hugh A. Day, of the County Farm Bureau, Washington, was in Charleroi on Friday, for the purpose of interesting our citizens in the new movement to Volunteer for Liberty Wheat Seeding.

As announced by Mr McKee, head of the Washington County Farm Bureau, the government has called for an increased wheat seeding of seven per cent this fall, which will amount to 2,000 acres in Washington county. As set forth by the county farm bureau. we have the land, machinery and teams, and the farmers will make a normal seeding even with the great labor shortage on the farms. To put in seven per cent additional wheat, help must come from the towns of Washington county to meet this quota.

It was to arrange for volunteers from this vicinity that Mr. Day was in Charleroi Friday morning, at which time he had a conference with John D. Schaffer, President of the Business Men's Association. It will require 4,000 days work to meet this acreage increase, and the men of the towns are expected to volunteer to provide for the above number of days.

A meeting of the Business Men's Association and all other citizens interested will be held in Charleroi some evening next week, at which time steps will be taken to provide our community's share of this needed man power in order to assist the farmers of the county in making up their 2,000 acres in addition to the normal amount of seeding which would have been done as usual. But little difficulty is expected in securing the desired number of men, as quite a number have already signed up to give two days' labor to this worthy cause.

As the card says, "If you are interested in having wheat flour to send to our boys and our Allies as well as to use at home, don't think for a reason why you cannot volunteer. Every man can help that has the right spirit. Sign up."

LITTLE GIRL RUN DOWN BY BICYCLE

A little girl named Katherine Gamble. of Allenport, aged six years, visiting with friends on Crest avenue, near Eighth street, was run down and badly injured by a bicycle driven by Clarence Culbertson Friday evening. A boy named Stewart was riding on the bicycle with Culbertson. The little girl was crossing the street in company with a companion about her own age, when she was run down by the machine She was unconscious for quite a period, but is reported as being much improved this morning.

LOCAL SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 2

Superintendent Pollock, of the Charleroi public schools, announced this morning that the opening session of the local schools for thee oming term would take place on Monday, September 2. Also, that all children attending school for the first time will be required to be vaccinated before that date.

CASUALTY RUMORS ARE CONTRADICTED

In contradiction to the stories being spread by German sympathizers to the effect that the number of Americans wounded in the present drive in France is tremendously high, Edward A. Woods. chairman of Civilian Relief Pittsburgh Chapter, American Red Cross, has obtained the following information from Director Prosser of the Federal Board of Vocational Education.

From the figures of the allied countries, the Government's estimate is that of men mobilized. 1 per cent will be in such physical condition as to require retraining for different occupations. Of this 1 per cent, one-half or 5,000 per 1,000,00 mobilized, will be surgical cases, and of these only 500 will be dismemberment cases, of whom 300 will have lost an arm or arms. In other words. three one-hundredths of 1 per cent of the men mibilized will have lost legs and two one-hundredths of 1 per cent will have losta rms

The percentage of blindness is smaller yet. Of 45,000 persons invalided back to Canada up to October 31. last year, out of a mobilization of 450,00, but 32 were blinded. or less than one—one-hundredth of one per cent.

The moral industrial casualties of this country in times of peace are about seven times the expected casualties of our first 1.000,000 mobilized men.

SOLDIER GETS HIS "BOX OF SMOKES"

Thomas Arrigo. the local contractor is in receipt of a postal from a soldier now in service in France, acknowledging the receipt of some tobacco which Mr. Arrigo forwarded through the Mail tobacco fund last winter. The postal is as follows:—

'Somewhere in France. Dear Sir:—Received your box of "smokes" here the other day, which were very welcome. Please accept my thanks for the same. I am sorry I cannot write and tell you some war news and about army life in France. My home is in Pittsburgh, Pa., and I will expect to see you after the war. Again thanking you I remain, Private Robert C. Reese."

Lieut. Lamb Killed In Battle In France

H. L. Lamb, of California, received a letter Friday evening, informing him that his son Lieut. Levi Lamb, had been killed in action near Soissons, France, on the 18th of July. The letter came from Col. L. S. Upton, commander of the Ninth Infantry, to which regiment Lieut. Lamb was attached. Only a few days ago Mr. Lamb received a telegram from the Adjutant General's office at Washington informing him that his son had been seriously wounded. The letter of Col. Upton is as follows:

Headquarters Ninth United States Infantry, American Expeditionary Forces, July 22, 1918.

H. L. Lamb, Esq., California, Pa.

Lieut. Levi L. Lamb was killed leading his command in action during the Allied advance on Soissins, July 18. His death was instantaneous. His regiment lost a gallant and courageous officer. beloved alike by his fellow officers and by his men. His conduct during this battle, as in former engagements with his regiment, has been of the highest order and was an inspiration to all about him.

The officers and men of the Ninth Infantry extend to you their heartfelt sympathy. Sincerely.

L. S. Upton,
Colonel Ninth Infantry.

DENIES BEING A GERMAN PRISONER

The Mail is in receipt of the following letter from John Tchoryk, now a member of the military forces of the United States, and who is preparing for duty overseas.

Company L, 50th Infantry, Potomac Park, Washington. D. C., August 14.—Dear Friends in Charleroi:—It gives me great pleasure to greet you all with my best wishes I am now in the United States Army and proud of it. I like my job very much and am getting along as "fine as silk." I am healthier at the present time than I have ever been. I am doing by "bit" and doing the best that can be done by any good son of this beloved Mother—America.

Being in the city of Washington I am gaining more and more in loyalty to the best country under the shining sun. I only wish for the chance, get a good shot at the dumhead and brute Kaiser. and then I will be perfectly satisfied.

For the benefit of those under the impression that I was a German prisoner, I have the honor to let them know that I am right in the beautiful city of Washington, enjoying my life in the army. and will remain a true son of Old Glory and good old America forever. Your friend,

John Tchoryk.

HOSPITAL RECORDS TO BE AVAILABLE

Exact information concerning wounded and sick Americans admitted to hospitals overseas will be made immediately available to relatives or friends of the men under a plan being worked out. It is proposed to have the daily hospital reports carded, catalogued and tabulated so that the most instantaneous information can be given to all. The hospital records will be brought from France to Washington weekly by courier and thus it will be possible to give the exact nature of the wounds or disease from which the man suffers.

An examination for the position of Clerk-Carrier in the Charleroi post office will be held in the Federal building, August 24, 1918. at 9 o'clock, a. m.

MORE VACANCIES IN SCHOOL FACULTY

Five vacancies now exsit in the teaching force of the Charleroi public schools, three of them occurring this week. Miss Hazel Horne, who was elected last spring, has resigned to take a position with the Pfleghardt Furniture company as bookkeeper; Miss Elma Collins has taken a position with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company and has tendered her resignation, and Mrs. Jennie Knight has also resigned. Prof. Pollock, superintendent, has a number of applicants for these vacancies, from whom he expects to secure a sufficient number to complete his faculty.

WAGE INCREASES FOR MINE LABOR

Labor conditions in the coal mining industry of which "the only logical solution is a substantial flat wage increase to be applied to all classes of mine labor" will be discussed at a conference of the United Mine Workers to be held in Washington, August 22, according to an announcement made in Washington Friday night by Frank J. Hayes, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

In calling the conference, it was stated that it had been called to avert a developing labor condition in the industry, which if permitted to go unchecked, would undermine the production plans. This labor condition has been caused. says Mr. Hayes, by many mine owners paying bonuses in excess of the wage scale in order to get and keep miners in their camps.

MRS. WRIGHT RECEIVES IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

Mrs. C. C. Wright has received an appointment from Governor Brumbaugh as a member of the Board of Trustees to administer the Mothers' Assistance Fund for Washington county.

Chief Albright made a trip to the Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, on Friday, taking E E. Morrison, of Crest avenue. to that institution for treatment Mr. Morrison has been quite ill for the past few days.

BELGIAN MINISTER MAKES TOUR OF INSPECTION ON MONONGAHELA

Observes Methods In Use on our Inland Waterways With Interest

TO DEVELOPE THE CONGO RIVER

Edmond LaPlae, director general of the Belgian colonies, accompanied by William M. Rees, of the James Rees' Sons Company of Pittsburgh, was an interested passenger on the steamers B. F. Jones and Aliquippa, of the Vesta Coal company line, on Thursday.

Mr. LaPlae was making an inspection of the Monongahela river, as well as the methods of transportation in use on this stream, with a view of adopting the same methods on the Congo river in South Africa. The Congo district is under Belgian rule, and this great teritory having been fully acquired in 1908. The country is rich in agriculture and mineral deposits, and it is the purpose of the Belgian government to develop the country after the close of the present war. Director LaPlae is firmly convinced the conflict will be over next year, with Germany forced back across the Rhine a badly defeated nation. He says his country no longer fears another German invasion, and with the little kingdom rehabilitated, which will be accomplished just as soon as the Hun invader is driven from her soil, the great work of developing the resources of the African colonies will be put under way.

He says that water transportation will be deevloped to a high degree on the Congo, and the purpose of his visit to the United States is to secure data on methods of improving rivers as well as building steamboats and carriers for inland waterways. Incidentally it is purposed to award a large number of contracts for steamboats and other essentials, and he intimated that it would hardly be necessary to go farther than Pittsburgh in order to secure all the material needed in the various undertakings.

If his views should prove to be correct, it would mean that contracts well up into the millions of dollars would come to this section of the state, for new steamboats as well as reduction mills to be used in the copper trade in Congo land.

DEPARTMENT MAKES RULING ON BRASSARDS

The state draft headquarters has issued orders that the wearing of brassards or arm bands by the selected men on the way to camp is the same as wearing army uniforms. Under no circumstances may selected men purchase or be given intoxicant liquors. Rules applying to soldiers in uniform apply to selectives wearing brassards.

CORONER'S JURY RENDERS VERDICTS

Coroner Heffran held two inquests Friday evening at the offices of Lawrence B. Frye, Fallowfield avenue, at which inquiries were made into the deaths of Robert, Roy and Bessie McCollum, killed at the Henderson road crossing by a street car, and also into the death of William Kelley at the Crystal Ice plant on Tuesday last.

The jurors called were Wylie McCarty. S. R. Frye. Charles S. Vanvoorhis, Harry C. Hormell, F O Vetter, and Thomas H. Myers. After hearing the evidence in the McCollum case they returned a verdict finding that Robert and Roy McCollum came to their deaths August 5, and Bessie McCollum on August 6th, from shock due to injuries received when the auto in which they were riding was struck by a street car at the Henderson road crossing, in Allen township, August 5. They also found the accident not due to any negligence or carelessness on the part of the crew of the street car; rather to inexperience or carelessness on the part of the operator of the automobile. The jury found further that said accident occurred on State Highway Route No. 268, and recommended to the State Highway Department that in the improvement of this highway this as well as other grade crossings in that immediate vicinity be eliminated.

In the case of William Kelley, the jury found that his death was due to electrocution, caused by the wires in the ice plant becoming charged from the high tension wires of the West Penn company outside the plant. which was found due to the breaking of a limb of a tree falling over the wires during a storm and making a short circuit.

Members of the connection in all parts of the state have been notified. and it is expected that a large number will be in attendance.

FILL EMPTY BOTTLES

Most of us have been told from childhood the story of the young prince who searched the world over for a buried treasure and at last found it under his own door step.

Many times the thing we are eagerly hunting for far from home is at our very door. That is more than a trite moral; it is practical advice. It is especially practical today for the housewife who may complain that because of the shortage of containers she can not "put up" as much foodstuffs this year as formerly.

Because a lack of tin, solder, rubber and labor has made a shortage of cans and jars, it does not necessarily follow that there is a shortage of containers. How about all those bottles you have tucked away on the back shelf of the pantry and in out-of-the-way corners of the cellar? They may be brought out and used, if properly sterilized.

Many women are already forming neighborhood salvage clubs to assemble the empty bottles, glass and earthen jars, and boxes that ordinarily would be thrown away back at home and in the store, and are redistributing them to women who have not enough other containers to hold their winter's supply of preserved and canned goods.

Unusual care must be taken to sterilize every bottle and jar that is salvaged before it is used. The following are some suggestions for using salvaged containers: Bottles—Large, narrow-necked bottles may be used for bottling fruit juice, tomato paste and catsup. Wide-necked bottles are suitable for preserves, pickles and vegetables. The contents of bottles corked and sealed with sealing-wax keep if the usual canning directions are followed. Boxes—Tin, wood and pasteboard boxes may be used for dried fruits and vegetables. Paste over the edges to protect from insects and moisture. Cans—Any pressure—lid cans such as corn syrup comes in, may be used for canning fruit, and vegetables. Can as usual and seal edge of lid with sealing wax.

Jars—If screw-top glass jars are used, place cardboard and wax paper in cover, and dip in melted paraffin after lid is screwed on. Earthen jars in which fruit butter is sold have fitted lids and may be sealed with sealing wax.

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

Thec ampaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan will begin September 28 and close October 19. The result of the loan will be watched with keen interest in Europe, not only by our associates in the war against the Teutonic powers, but by our enemies. It will be regarded by them as a measure of the American people's support of the war.

The Germans know full well the tremendous weight and significance of popular support of the war, of the people at home backing up the army in the field. As the loan succeeds all enemies will sorrow; as it fall short they will rejoice. Every dollars subscribed will help and encourage the American soldiers and hurt and depress the enemies of America.

The loan will be a test of the loyalty and willingness of the people of the United States to make sacrifices compared with the willingness of our soldiers to do their part. There must be, and will be no failure by the people to measure up the courage and devotion of our men in Europe. Many of them have given up their lives; shall we at home without our money? Shall we spare our dollars while they spared not their lives?

MEETING OF THE COUNTY ASSESSORS

An interesting session of the assessors of Washington county was held in the public meeting room of the court-house at Washington on Friday, which was presided over by John O. Watson, President of the Board of Commissioners. More than one-half the assessors in the county were present, not only to take out their books and papers, but to receive instructions as to their duties.

Mr. Watson opened the meeting with a short and patriotic address, impressing upon the assessors their duties at this time. He called attention to the small remuneration which the assessors receive, but that this is a matter that can be changed by an act of the legislature. He felt that every assessor was entitled to full pay and was not in sympathy with the action of the controller in cutting down their bills. The need of equality of assessments was emphasized, and each assessor was instructed to study the conditions in his own locality and to render a just accounting to the commissioners.

Thomas Hill, senior member of the board, made a very practical talk, citing the fact that the present war conditions have wrought changes in valuations, as in every thing else, and they must remember that the valuations are being made for three years—over a very uncertain period, during which there are likely to be many fluctuations in values. He said the only thing the assessors could consider was the money value of the properties as they stand today—what would they bring if sold in the market. If the assessors would adhere strictly to this rule, and be careful to equalize them, they would have little difficulty in making a true and just valuation.

A. P. Barnum made a good address the keynote of which was service. He appealed to the officers to be diligent and careful in their work and to make a study of properties. County Solicitor Eagleson gave a talk on the legal difficulties which the assessors would face and gave instructions as to the law. At the close of the address a number of questions were asked by assessors, which were answered by Chief Clerk Harry R. Campbell.

SHORTAGE OF OIL IS VERY EVIDENT

The United States government is now discouraging the burning of midnight oil, for it is announced that the supply of kerosene will run short next winter. Every user is enjoined to do his part toward making every gallon do full war duty by giving forth its full measure of light and heat, and saving can be accomplished only if good care is given lamps, lanterns, heaters and stoves.

The Director of Oil Conservation of the United States Fuel Administration issues these rules for fuel-oil saving:—

Keep all lamps and lanterns clean. Let the light out; don't confine it behind smoked and dirty chimneys.

See that burners and wicks of all oil burning devices are clean. Clean burners require less oil and gives better lights.

Don't allow a lamp, lantern, heater or stove to burn a minute longer than is necessary. Don't light one you can do without.

Don't use coal oil for cleaning purposes. Hot water will do the work.

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Charleroi People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Charleroi residents on the following subject will interest and benefit many of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Mrs. Fred Jackson, 267 Prospect avenue, Charleroi, says: "I was troubled by a constant backache. If I did a little extra work the pain in my back was intense. I didn't rest well at night and got up in the morning lame and stiff. If I stooped, sharp pains caught me and I could hardly straighten. I also had rheumatic pains in my back and arms and I couldn't do any sweeping. Dizzy spells and hot flashes bothered me terribly. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in the family with good results, I got a box at Piper Bros.' Drug Store and began taking them. One box cured me."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mrs. Jackson. Foster-Milburn

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.

That section eight of article nine, of the Constitution be amended by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as provided herein, and in section fifteen of this article, shall never exceed seven (7) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, but the debt of the city of Philadelphia may be increased in such amount that the total city debt of said city shall not exceed ten per centum (10) upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two (2) per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of the said city of Philadelphia, at any time, there shall be excluded from the calculation and deducted from such debt so much of the debt of the said city as shall have been incurred, and the proceeds thereof invested, in any public improvements of any character which shall be yielding to the said city an annual current net revenue. The amount of such deduction shall be ascertained by capitalizing the annual net revenue from such improvement during the year immediately preceding the time of such ascertainment; and such capitalization shall be estimated by ascertaining the principal amount which would yield such annual current net revenue, at the average rate of interest, and sinking-fund charges payable upon the indebtedness incurred by said city for such purposes, up to the time of such ascertainment. The method of determining such amount, so to be deducted, may be prescribed by the General Assembly. In incurring indebtedness for any purpose the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty (50) years from the date thereof with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to reure said obligations at maturity; the payment to such sinking-fund to be in equal or graded annual or other periodical instalments. Where any indebtedness shall be or shall have been incurred by said city of Philadelphia for the purpose of the construction or improvement of public works of any character from which income or revenue is to be derived by said city, or for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves or docks owned or to be owned by said city, such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for, and may include the amount of, the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction, and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred; and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking-fund charges as required by section ten, article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of said work.
